whom he desires to vote in the appropriate blank space or spaces.

3. Filing of Candidacy. Any person qualified to be elected to any of said offices shall be entitled to have his name printed upon said official ballot as a candidate upon filing written declaration with the clerk not later than five o'clock in the afternoon of the sixth day preceding the day of the annual meeting.

4. Mode of Balloting. The polls shall be open promptly at the hour for which the meeting is warned and shall remain open at least one hour. One official ballot shall be placed in the hands of each voter as he enters the polling place. The moderator may appoint tellers to receive and tally the votes. After all other business of the meeting has been transacted and all voters present have been given an opportunity to cast their ballot and the one hour having transpired, the moderator shall declare the polls closed, the final tally shall be made by the tellers and the moderator shall declare the results.

5. Takes Effect. This act shall take effect upon its adoption by a majority vote of the qualified voters present and voting at any legal meeting of said district.

The principal place of business and date and year of incorporation, when given in the above list, are included for the purpose of distinguishing corporations of the same or similar names.

2. Remedies Preserved. No remedy against any such corporation, its stockholders or officers, for any liability previously incurred, shall be impaired hereby.

3. Reinstatement. Any such corporation may, within ninety days after the date that this act takes effect, reinstate itself as a corporation by the payment of any fees in arrears and the filing with the secretary of state of any annual returns required by law and a statement under oath, signed by the clerk or secretary of such corporation, that it desires that its charter or certificate of incorporation shall remain in full force and effect.

4. Disposition of Property. Any corporation whose charter is hereby repealed, revoked and annulled, shall, nevertheless, continue as a body corporate for the term of three years from the date that this act takes effect, for the purpose of presenting and defending suits by or against it and of gradually closing and settling its concerns and distributing its assets, including the disposition and transfer of all or any part of its property and for no other purpose; provided that the superior court shall have power at any time when it shall be made to appear, upon the petition of any interested party, that the protection of proprietary or other rights requires the doing of any act or thing by or in behalf of any such corporation to order the doing of such acts or things, and for this purpose may appoint and authorize an agent to act for and in the name of such corporation and any action so ordered and done shall be effective corporate action.

5. Takes Effect. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

[Approved June 16, 1939.]
